November Blessings: A Month of Gratitude

Thanksgiving is a time to express gratitude and celebrate with family and friends, traditionally observed on the fourth Thursday of November. At our school, Lok Sin Tong Lau Tak Primary School, we will celebrate Thanksgiving on November 27th, fostering appreciation and community spirit among all students and teachers.

Teachers' Thanksgiving Thought

Miss Ng

Hello everyone! Here comes November! November is one of my favourite months. Except for celebrating my birthday in this month, we also celebrate Thanksgiving! We are going to have lots of Thanksgiving activities on the last Thursday (27/11) this month! There will be various game booths, photo-taking, face/body painting and other activities. Let's have some fun together if you see me around!

Who would you like to say "thank you" to?
Which activity/activities would you expect the most?
Come and share with us!

Miss Law

Thanksgiving has always held a special place in my heart. Each year, my family gathers around the table, filled with laughter and the aroma of roasted turkey and pumpkin pie. I cherish the moments of sharing stories and expressing gratitude for our blessings. One memorable Thanksgiving, we decided to volunteer at a local shelter, serving meals to those in need. This experience shifted my perspective, reminding me of the importance of compassion and community. The warmth of that day, surrounded by loved ones and the joy of giving back, made it a Thanksgiving I will never forget.

Thankful Expressions

Dear Harry,

I thank you for always boosting me up when I get bored. I am also thankful for all the good times we've had together.

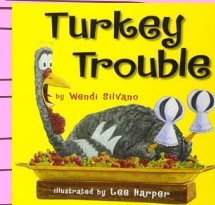

I like how you joke around and brighten my day. I am so lucky to have a friend like you.

Wishing you a wonderful Thanksgiving filled with love and joy!

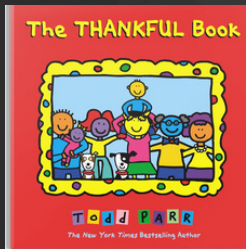

Best wishes

Andy (Friend)

Dear Haven,

Thanksgiving is approaching. So I have decided to write you a letter. You may not be able to read it yet, but still remember the times we argued together. I want to say I'm sorry. But let's look on the bright side, shall we?

I want to tell you how thankful I am to you. Whenever you enter my room, you always break the silence at the perfect timing. When you watch me play games, you tell me what I missed in game. You make me smile for the weirdest reasons. Thank you for that.

Love,
Hagiel (Sister)

A Day of Thanks

The chair is set, the lights glow,
A time for love a time to show.
With every moment, a story told,
Of lovely moments, both new and old.

A Grateful Heart

As we gather 'round, let's hold hands tight,
Sharing our blessings, feeling
the light.
For in every smile, in every
hug,
Thanksgiving reminds us of love.

Together We Feast

We pass the ball, make each other smile,
In every moment, running is a mile.
Hand in hand, we share our cheer,
Thanksgiving magic brings us near.
